[The Remainder of what we begun last Week, relating to JOHN HUGHES.]

Another Letter from John Hughes, Esq; to the Commissioners of the Stamp-Office in London.

Philadelphia, November 2, 1765.

GENTLEMEN,

SINCE my laſt, a Copy whereof is herewith ſent, nothing very extraordinary has been attempted by the Mob, as the great Men here would fain have it termed and believed on your Side of the Water, and I make no Doubt, but it will be ſo repreſented by the Proprietary Governor and his Friends; but the Truth is, that if the Governor, or any Half Dozen of the Magiſtrates, had called the Sheriff and Conſtables to their Aſſiſtance, it would have been very eaſy for them, with the Aſſiſtance of MY FRIENDS then collected about my Houſe, the Amount of not leſs than 7 or 800 Men of Reputation, who would have aſſiſted the Civil Officers at the Riſk of their Lives, as THEY, AND I did to ſuppreſs the Paxton Riot, that intended to deſtroy the Indians at the Barracks.

I am now informed the Governor has taken the Oath preſcribed by the Stamp-Act, but his Friends keep it a Secret, and ſay, Who knows that he has? But it will ſoon appear here, for that will alter his Conduct. The Commiſſioners and Government may depend that I will communicate Things as they happen, though it is at the Riſk of my Life, for the Party by their Tools frequently give out, that if they knew the Man that would ſo far aſſiſt Britain, as to INFORM againſt any Man in this or any other Province, he ſhould not live many Hours; and I do aſſure the Government and Commiſſioners, that all poſitive Charges made by me, can be proved by reputable Witneſſes. But whether his Majeſty, or his Miniſtry, can or will wink at and over look theſe Inſults and Outrages, and permit their Coloniſts to refuſe Obedience to AN ACT OF PARLIAMENT, and alſo declare it ILLEGAL and UNCONSTITUTIONAL; and alſo permit the Printers here to publiſh weekly the moſt violent and inflammatory Pieces that ever were wrote; and I am of Opinion, that if the Continental Papers for theſe two or three Months paſt were examined, many of them would be found rather to exceed the North-Briton, N°. 45, in alienating the Affections of the People from his Majeſty, and animating them to REBELLION, and yet at the ſame Time call themſelves Engliſhmen, and profeſs the higheſt Degree of Loyalty to his Majeſty. I ſometimes tell ſome of our WARM BLADES, that it is a Piece of Inconſiſtency in them to call themſelves Engliſhmen, becauſe, Gentlemen, ſay I, if you are Engliſhmen, you muſt be bound by Acts of Parliament, until that Parliament releaſes you from that Obedience, which has not yet been done, as I know of; to this they reply, Our Charters have done it abſolutely. No, Gentlemen, your Charters are but the Declarations of the Kings that granted them, and they can't be tortured to mean no more than that the Kings of Great-Britain would not arbitrarily, and without Law raiſe Money on the Subject in America, and this is all our Forefathers ſeemed to have aſked when they left Britain, and indeed it is all the Kings of Britain can legally promiſe, for the King cannot bar the Rights of the Lords and Commons any more than they can his Prerogatives. The Anſwer then is, YOU ARE AN ENEMY TO AMERICA, AND OUGHT TO HAVE YOUR BRAINS BEAT OUT, &c. and indeed there is nothing has ſaved me, but the great Number of Friends and Relations I have in this Country, and had it not been for their Numbers, I muſt have reſigned my Office abſolutely, or elſe not only me, but my Family and Fortune, would have fallen a Sacrifice. I believe I am the ONLY STAMP DISTRIBUTOR that has not either reſigned abſolutely, or fled the Province, between Virginia and Halifax; and if the Virginia Officer had been there, I think he muſt have reſigned alſo, for there the Fire began. It is my private Opinion, that if the Province of Pennſylvania was changed from Proprietary to a Royal Government, and SOME PERSON appointed to govern it that had both Intereſt among the People, and A PERFECT KNOWLEDGE OF THEM, ſo as to be ABLE TO DISPLACE THE DISLOYAL, and put in Power and Commiſſion ſuch only as could be depended on, and have demonſtrated their Loyalty to their King, SUCH A PERSON, after the Changes aforeſaid, might eaſily Govern this Province, and preſerve the Peace of it, and KEEP IT IN SUBJECTION to his Majeſty, which I think we hardly are at this Time. One Reaſon aſſigned for not paying Obedience to this Act of Parliament, is, that we have no Repreſentative in Parliament. I then ſay, let us petition for Repreſentatives. O no, we will not agree to that, becauſe we have Repreſentatives of our own, and have always given Money when we have been called upon by the King or his Miniſters, and if that will not do, let us have a Houſe of Commons in America, to ſettle what ſhall be the Quota of each Colony when Money is wanted, &c. No. Gentlemen, you have fore-cloſed yourſelves of that, for you have demonſtrated YOUR PROPENSITY TO REBELLION to that Degree that it is MY OPINION the Miniſtry never can adviſe his Majeſty to unite you more than you now are, but if they KNOW'D our Circumſtances rightly, they'd divide us yet more by forming new Colonies out of Virginia, and perhaps SOME OTHERS, that are already but too large; but theſe Things are at a Diſtance, for Great-Britain muſt firſt determine whether ſhe is to govern us or not, and whether ſhe will permit us to put ourſelves under the Protection of France or Spain, as many upon the Continent declare they will ward off the Stamp-Act until they can get France or Spain to protect them, and ſome few have gone ſo far in this Province. I muſt now contradict your Allegation of our giving Money when called upon. Pray has MARYLAND given [*] ONE SHILLING all the laſt War. and did not moſt of the Colonies, except Pennſylvania, refuſe both Men and Money for Col. Bouquet's laſt Expedition againſt the Indians to the Weſtward, and when Col. Bouquet, by his Friends, got ſome Volunteers raiſed for that Purpoſe in Virginia, was he not obliged to apply to the Commiſſioners of this Province to pay them, or elſe he muſt have paid them out of his private Fortune, although the War was on the Virginia Frontier, and their People frequently murthered at that Time.

Nov. 3ᵈ, Being Sunday Evening, I was called upon by the Collector to let me know that he and the other Cuſtom-Houſe Officers would call upon me next Day, but they afterwards changed their Plan, and on Tueſday the 5ᵗʰ, I received the Paper (N°. 1) and that Afternoon returned for Anſwer the Paper (N°. 2) and I now underſtand that the Party are much diſſatisfied with my Anſwer, and ſay I had no Need to ſay more than three Words, viz. "I have none," this they could have proteſted upon, and ſent home to the Cuſtom-Houſe, but I believe they have no great Inclination to ſend home this Letter, however I think it my Duty to ſend it to you, with a Copy of theirs alſo, I wiſh I knew whether the Act would be enforced or not, for if it is to be repealed I might reſign voluntarily in Time, and thereby eſcape the Violence of the Party, for if the Act is not enforced, nor I do not reſign in Time, I ſhall not be able to go into ſome of the neighbouring Colonies, and look after my Intereſt during my Life Time, for they threaten me already in Maryland and Virginia, that if they ever catch me there they will make a Sacrifice of me, but if they ſhould be made ſubject to Great-Britain, I ſhall then be in no Danger, FOR THE ISSUE OF THIS ACT WILL ABSOLUTELY DETERMINE BRITAIN'S SOVEREIGNTY IN AMERICA, for if by THESE REBELLIOUS ACTIONS WE CAN GET THIS ACT REPEALED, I have no Doubt but ſome of my Children may live to ſee a Duty laid by Americans on ſome Things imported from Britain, for I do not know an Inſtance of a MOB'S SITTING DOWN CONTENTED WITH ONE THING, UNLESS THEY HAVE A FORCE ABLE TO QUELL THEM.

I preſume when the Remonſtrances from the grand Committee (who meet at New-York) come home, it will be eaſy to judge what we would be at, for even in this Province, ſome few ſay, if we ſtick by one another it is not in the Power of Britain to enforce it, and ſay, that Ireland did the ſame formerly, and by that Means have eſcaped the Burthen AS THEY CALL IT. I am unable at this Time to give a more full Account of the Proceedings in America, being not recovered from my late Illneſs.

Nov. 7ᵗʰ, 1765. To the Commiſſioners of the Stamp Office. } I am, Gentlemen, with Reſpect, Your moſt obedient, Humble Servant, JOHN HUGHES.

(N°. 1.)

Mr. JOHN HUGHES.

SIR,

"We have heard from Public Report, that you are the Officer appointed to diſtribute Stamp Papers and Parchment in the Province, purſuant to an Act of Parliament lately publiſhed in England, and we now apply to you to know, whether you can ſupply us with Stamp Papers proper for Cockets and Clearances, on which a Duty of 4d. Sterling is impoſed: (if the Copy we have ſeen of the Act be genuine,) We apprehend it is our Duty to apply to you for them, as we cannot proceed regularly in the Buſineſs of our Office without them. Pleaſe to let us have your Anſwer in Writing as ſoon as poſſible, in order to prevent any Miſtake or Miſunderſtanding that may happen from a verbal Conference between us. We beg you will be pleaſed to have a direct Anſwer, whether you will or not let us have the Stamp-Papers for the Purpoſes above-mentioned.

We are, Sir,

Cuſtom-houſe, Philad. Nov. 4, 1765. } Your moſt humble Servants, J. SWIFT, D. Collector, ALEX. BARCLAY, Compt. THO. GRAME, Naval-Officer.

(N°. 2.)

GENTLEMEN,

"I received yours of the 4ᵗʰ Inſtant, and cannot but infer from the Contents that you are Strangers in Pennſylvania, ſince by the Tenor of your Letter you ſeem to be unacquainted with the Things that are come to Paſs in theſe OUR DAYS. Therefore I think it neceſſary, before I proceed in Anſwer to it, to give you a brief detail of what has happened. Firſt then, I am to inform you, that on Saturday the 5ᵗʰ of October laſt, the State-Houſe and Chriſt-Church Bells were Rung Muffled, and two Negro Drummers, one of whom belonged to Alderman Samuel Mifflin, beat through all Parts of the City with muffled Drums, thereby alarming the Inhabitants, in conſequence whereof a large Number of People was raiſed and aſſembled at the State-houſe, where it was publickly declared, as I am informed, that if I did not immediately Reſign my Office, my Houſe ſhould be pulled down, and my Subſtance deſtroyed; but, before the Convention broke up, the Gentlemen aſſembled there, in Part, changed their Reſolution, and, by a Note they at Night ſent me, indulged me till Ten o'Clock the Monday Morning following, to ſatisfy them whether I would or not reſign my Office as Stamp Diſtributor for this Province. Secondly, Altho' it was

[*] AS Printer to MARYLAND, I cannot avoid taking Notice of this vile and falſe Inſinuation, relating to the Province. This great Advocate for the STAMP ACT, not Content with abuſing, vilifying, and miſrepreſenting the good People of the Province wherein he Lives, muſt needs too throw out his baſe Calumniations againſt MARYLAND, by implicitly telling the World, That they had not given One Shilling all the laſt War. Surely this Stickler muſt have "KNOW'D" better, or elſe, to uſe his own Expreſſion, he muſt have been [unacquainted with the Things that have come to Paſs in OUR DAYS.] Had he Read that excellent Pamphlet, entitled CONSIDERATIONS ON THE PROPRIETY OF IMPOSING TAXES, &c. Page 21, he would there have found the LIE flatly given him, and "that Maryland contributed near 50,000 l. and incurred beſides a conſiderable Expence, which is now a Debt upon the Public Journal of the Colony, by putting her Militia into actual Service; and that an unhappy Diſpute, attended with a very heavy Provincial Charge, on ſome Topic of Privilege, was the real Cauſe why the Grants of Maryland were not more liberal." It will be but a Piece of Juſtice to this Province in ſuch of my Brethren of the Type as ſhall publiſh this notable Correſpondence of Mr. Hughes after ſeeing this Note, to inſert it in their Gazettes, or ſo much of it at leaſt as to clear this Colony from the vile Miſrepreſentation above-mention'd. J. G.

currently reported through the City on the 4th of October laſt, that Capt. Holland, with the Stamp Papers, &c. would be up the next Day, and that a Mob would be raiſed to deſtroy them, yet neither the Governor, the Supreme Judges, the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, nor any other Juſticiary Officers, (Benjamin Shoemaker excepted,) took the leaſt Notice thereof, nor uſed any Means to preſerve the Peace of the City. Thirdly, Altho' on Monday the 7th of October, when the People collected at the Free Maſon's Lodge, and their Delegates, who need not here be named, came to my Houſe, and demanded of me my Anſwer, Whether I would, or would not Reſign my Office as a Stamp Diſtributor of this Province? yet, neither the Governor, the Judges of the Supreme Court, altho' then ſitting, the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, nor any of the Peace Officers of the City, teſtified the leaſt Diſapprobation thereof, but permitted thoſe Gentlemen, and their Aſſociates, to compel me to make the Declaration which you may ſee printed in the Gazette and Pennſylvania Journal of the 10th of October laſt. Fourthly, Theſe Gentlemen Delegates, and their Aſſociates, have therefore prevented any Stamps from coming into my Poſſeſſion, of conſequence, it is not in my Power to ſupply you; but, as you may be unacquainted with the Situation of the Stamp Papers, I do myſelf the Pleaſure of informing you, that his Honour the Governor has committed them to the Care of Captain Hawker, Commander of his Majeſty's Ship Sardoine; and I would likewiſe, Gentlemen, beg Leave to acquaint you, that he has taken, as I am informed, a ſolemn Oath, "to do, to his utmoſt, that all "and every of the Clauſes contained in the Stamp "Act, ſhall be, bonâ fide, obſerved;" wherefore I muſt refer you to him, as I am, for the Reaſons already aſſigned, at preſent incapacitated to ſupply you with Stamp Papers, &c. for a more full Anſwer, if neceſſary, to your Letter. Fifthly, If any Inconveniency or Damages therefore, ſhould happen to any Perſon or Perſons for want of the Stamped Papers, the Blame neither can, nor does lye at my Door, whatever it may of thoſe of the Gentlemen Delegates, and their Aſſociates, &c. I am ſorry, Gentlemen, that you ſuffered an Inſinuation to eſcape your Pen, as if I would not afford you a direct Anſwer to your Letter, for I am perſuaded no Part of my Conduct has given you, or any other Perſon, Cauſe to ſuſpect either my Candour or Integrity; therefore permit me to ſay, that I muſt look upon this Inſinuation as both ungenerous and unfriendly."

Philad. Nov. 5.
To John Swift, Alex. Barclay, and Thomas Grame, Eſq^rs.

I am, Sirs,
Your humble Servant,
JOHN HUGHES.

EXTRACT of Letters from John Hughes, Eſq; appointed Diſtributor of Stamps for Pennſylvania, to Benjamin Franklin, Eſq; Agent for ſaid Province, and by him laid before the Parliament.

Philadelphia, September 1765.

YOU are now, from Letter to Letter, to ſuppoſe each may be the laſt that you will receive from your old Friend, as the Spirit or Flame of REBELLION IS GOT TO A HIGH PITCH AMONGST THE NORTH-AMERICANS; and it ſeems to me, that a Sort of Frenzy or Madneſs has got ſuch hold of the People of all Ranks, that I fancy ſome Lives will be loſt before this Fire is put out. I am at preſent much perplext what Courſe to ſteer; for as I have given YOU Reaſon to expect I WOULD ENDEAVOUR TO PUT THE ACT IN EXECUTION, and you no Doubt have informed the Commiſſioners, I cannot in Point of Honour go back, until ſomething or other is done by the People to render it impoſſible for me to proceed. But, perhaps, when a Mob is on Foot, my Intereſt may fall a Sacrifice to an infatuated Multitude; and I know of no Way to prevent it, but abſolutely declaring off, as all the reſt have done to the Eaſtward; but, as yet, I cannot prevail upon myſelf, notwithſtanding the Threats of ſome, and the Perſuaſions of others, to do an Act that appears to me neither Loyal nor Reputable.

I have hitherto kept Matters eaſy, by ſaying, I had Nothing to reſign, for I have neither received any Commiſſion, or any other kind of Writing from the Stamp-Office; but when it is known I have received my Commiſſion, I fancy I ſhall not eſcape the Storm of Preſbyterian Rage, and as Capt. Friend is expected every Day, my Doom will ſoon be known; but whether I may live to inform you, is yet in the Womb of Futurity.

By Governor Franklin's Letters, and by my laſt, you will ſee that Mr. Cox has reſigned the Stamp-Office for New-Jerſey; and there is ſcarce a Day goes over my Head, but many People call upon me to Reſign, and ſay I am an Enemy to North-America, if I do not; but ſince I am now DIPT, and muſt abide by Conſequences, BE THEY WHAT THEY WILL, I ſhall be exceedingly obliged to you, if it is conſiſtent with your Judgment, to recommend my Son Hugh for Mr. Cox's Succeſſor. My Son is married, and ſettled in New-Jerſey, has a good Eſtate, both Real and Perſonal, and can give any Security that may be required. I am the more induced to aſk this Favour, as I think there will be no Difficulty in putting the Act in Execution in that Province; and if my Property, and perhaps my Life, may be loſt in this Province, my Son, I hope, will be the better for the Office in that Province, which may be ſome Compenſation for what Property may be loſt out of the Family.

Sept. 10. Our Aſſembly met Yeſterday; and this Day a Majority of 15 againſt 14, were for ſending a Committee to New-York, to meet the Committee of Boſton, on the Firſt of October, where they inſinuate there will be Men ſent from every Colony, in order to unite, and become, as they expreſs it, like a Bundle of Rods, alluding to the Fable of the Old Man and his Sons. This Scheme, or Plan of Union, is not only begun, but is indefatigably puſhed forward by the PRESBYTERIANS principally.

Sept. 11. This Afternoon Capt. Friend arrived, and, as he ſays he has no Stamp Papers on board, all ſeems pretty quiet at preſent. The Aſſembly have named Joſeph Fox, George Bryan, John Morton, and John Dickenſon, as a Committee to go to the Congreſs at New York.

Sept. 12. Our Clamours run very high, and I am told my Houſe ſhall be pulled down, and the Stamps burnt; to which I give no other Anſwer, than that I will defend my Houſe at the Riſque of my Life. I muſt ſay, that all the ſenſible Quakers behave PRUDENTLY.

Sept. 16, in the Evening. Common Report threatens my Houſe this Night, as there are Bonfires and Rejoicings for the Change of Miniſtry. The ſober and ſenſible Part of the People are doing every Thing towards being in Readineſs to ſuppreſs a Mob, if there ſhould be any Intention of Riſing. I for my Part am well arm'd with Fire-Arms, and am determined to ſtand a Siege. If I live till To-Morrow Morning I ſhall give you a further Account; but, as it is now about 8 o'Clock, I am on my Guard, and only write this between whiles, as every Noiſe or Buſtle of the People calls me off.

9 o'Clock. Several Friends that patrole between my Houſe and the Coffee-Houſe, came in juſt now, and ſay the Collection of Rabble begins to decreaſe viſibly in the Streets, and the Appearance of Danger ſeems a good Deal leſs than it did.

12 o'Clock. There are now ſeveral Hundreds of our Friends about the Street, ready to ſuppreſs any Mob, if it ſhould attempt to riſe, and the Rabble are diſperſing.

Sept. 17, 5 in the Morning. We are all yet in the Land of the Living, and our Properties ſafe, thank God.

Extract of a Letter from Joſeph Galloway, Eſq; dated Philadelphia, September 20, 1765, to Benjamin Franklin, Eſq; Agent.

THE Public Papers will inform you of the preſent diſtracted State of the Colonies, and the many Outrages and Riots that have been OCCASIONED BY A DISLIKE TO THE STAMP ACT; all which have been incited by the Principal Men of the Colonies where they have been committed. Meaſures have not been wanting to create the SAME TEMPER in the People here, in which ſome have been very active. In Hopes to prevent their ILL EFFECTS, I wrote a moderate Piece, ſigned Americanus, publiſhed here, and at New-York, and ſince in Virginia, wherein you will ſee my Sentiments on the Subject. I am told it had a good Effect in thoſe Places, as well as here, being much approved by the moderate Part of the People. Yet we ſhould not have been free from Riots here, if another Method had not been taken to prevent them, VIZ. By aſſembling quietly, at the Inſtance of Mr. Hughes's Friends, (and not by an Order from the Government of the City) near 800 of the Sober Inhabitants, poſted in different Parts, ready to prevent any Miſchief that ſhould be attempted by the Mob, which effectually intimidated them, and kept all tolerably quiet; only they burnt a Figure they called a Stamp-Man, and, about Midnight, diſperſed. Great Pains have been taken to PERSUADE and frighten Mr. Hughes into a RESIGNATION OF HIS OFFICE, but he continues FIRM, and will not Reſign in any Manner that ſhall do Diſhonour to his Appointment; and, I THINK, WILL BE ABLE to put his Commiſſion in Execution, NOTWITHSTANDING THE EXAMPLE SET BY OTHER COLONIES.

LONDON, July 10.

PRIVATE Letters from Conſtantinople adviſe, that near all the Stone Buildings, in particular the Grand Moſque, the Old Seraglio, and the Palace of the Grand Vizir, have been entirely overthrown; and ſome Accounts make the Number of People who periſhed amount to upwards of 40,000. The Suburb of Pera, where the foreign Miniſters, and in general all the Chriſtians reſide, ſuffered the leaſt. The Grand Signior, at the Time of the firſt Earthquake, was at one of his Summer Palaces on the Banks of the Black Sea, about 18 Leagues from Conſtantinople.
